FRIDAY, - NOVEMBER 28, 1890.

King William III, of Holland, died last Sunday morning.

August Belmont, of New York, the millionaire banker and financier, died Monday in the 71th year of his age.

We give our readers a fat Thanksgiving turkey on the outside to-day. Most of them were probably supplied on the inside yesterday.

The Orendorff street car stables were burned Tuesday morning and nineteen mules and the entire outfit of cars were consumed. Loss $15,000.

Parnell resigned the leadership of the Irish party on account of his recent domestic troubles, but was immediately and unanimously re-elected.

Benjamin P. Shillaber, known in literature as "Mrs. Partington," one of the favorite humorists of the last generation, died in Boston Tuesday, aged 70 years.

The Christmas number of "Godey's Lady's Book" is here, and it is a gem worth one of the richest settings. This is a real Xmas gift, full of stories both grave and gay; fashions, work designs, and general information suited to the season. Now is the time to subscribe. $2.00 per year. Godey Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

When Col. Ed. Porter Thompson and other Central Kentucky candidates start forth to hunt the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Western Kentucky will furnish a nice and pleasant gloom in which to bury their little boomlets, and will enclose the sacred spot with a Pickett fence.

It is said that President Harrison will insist in his message that the McKinley Bill and the Force Bill are just the kind of measures the country needs. Chief Gall is also in favor of forcible measures being adopted by the Sioux. Why not make the ticket of 1892 Harrison and Gall? It would sweet not only Oklahoma but North Dakota as well.

The large commission house of Thos. H. Allen & Co., Memphis, with a New York branch house under the name of Richard H. Allen & Co., failed in both branches Monday. Liabilities at Memphis $750,000 and at New York $1,000,000; assets $1,500,000 at Memphis and not given at New York. The firms are composed of T. H. Allen, Sr., T. H. Allen, Jr., R. H. Allen, Jr. and Harry Allen.

There are seven presidential post-offices in Kentucky still filled by Democrats and it is said to be a part of the Harrison program to remove these postmasters as soon as possible. Their terms expire as follows: Cincinnati, Jan. 10, 1891; Elizabethtown, February 14; Bardonia, December 21, 1890; Louisville, December 20, 1891; Eminence, July 1, 1892; Georgetown, February 21, 1892; Lexington, December 20, 1891; Richmond, December 20, 1891.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. "One of my children took a cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up the gathering in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine." CHARLES A. THOMPSON, Des Moines, Iowa. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavel.

Esq. W. E. Warfield has called our attention to the fact that his circular announcement last summer took substantially the same ground that the Kentuckian takes in regard to too many changes in the present constitution. Esq. Warfield's position was correct then and is correct now, and it is well to remember that Dr. Chas. W. E. Warfield was very similar to him on this point. At any rate, Dr. Chas. W. E. Warfield is voting against all unnecessary changes, such as altering the age at which a man may be eligible for Governor and the like. If this question was at any time an issue between the two gentlemen in their race for the nomination we failed to state the fact. Both took the right stand and the Kentuckian concurred in their position, no matter which first assumed it.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the change they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

FIGHTING INDIANS.

The Threatened Outbreak Comes at Last and Bloodshed Results.

Soldiers Hurrying To The Scene. Chicago, Nov. 26.—A special to the Inter Ocean from Missoula, Mont., says: A fierce battle is in progress between the military and the Indians near Fort Keogh, Mont. The department has ordered three companies of Fort Missoula troops to the scene of the trouble. Advances from various points say that lively skirmishing is in progress all along the line.

Pike River Agency, Nov. 26.—Little Wound and the Rosebud Indians have begun depredations by burning the houses of friendly Indian soldiers and Porepine creek. Gov. Mellette has sent arms to the Black Hills people. The troops will start at once after Little Wound.

Lus Vegas, N. M., Nov. 26.—Gen. Crook to-day ordered the Sixth Cavalry, now stationed at Fort Union, to be prepared with light baggage to join the troops that leave Fort Wingate to-morrow, and proceed with the utmost haste to Fort Meade, Dak. Gen. Mizzner, commander at Fort Russell, to-night expressed his opinion on the threatened outlook to the effect that if fighting began it would require 100,000 troops to conquer the Indians, and the result would be the total annihilation of the tribes waging war.

THE CRAFT.

The Morganfield Sun issued a very creditable double issue this week.

It is rumored that Mr. Chas. J. O'Malley, the young Kentucky poet, will become editorially connected with the Henderson Journal next year.

The Lexington Leader is out in a very becoming new dress.

Lee Elmore, editor of the Mayfield Democrat, wants to represent Graves county in the next Legislature.

"The Slossess of Bangville, a Five-hundred Dollar Prize Story, by James T. McKay, is one of the admirable stories given in the Thanksgiving Double Number of 'The Youth's Companion.' Among the other stories are 'A Thanksgiving Guest,' by Louise H. Baker; 'Cy and the Bear,' a humorous adventure, by John F. Barnes; 'Chased by a Shadow,' by Warren L. Watts, while a whole page of Thanksgiving fun is given for the younger readers.

The first issue of the Wheel, at Buffalo, LaRue county, is out.

The Daily Democrat has been started at Frankfort to run until December 4th, its object being to aid in the election of the Democratic city ticket.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

A Decision of Interest To Those Who Refuse To Lay Pavements.

The Court of Appeals has made an important decision on a test case taken up from this city relative to the right of cities to enforce orders for pavements in front of private property. This decision is in line with the amendment act passed by the last Legislature giving Hopkinsville further power to enforce such orders, and persons who have defied the city heretofore now have no other recourse than to conform to the law. This is from the Courier-Journal of Nov. 15.

Appellate Jurisdiction—Street improvements.—Starling, etc., vs. City of Hopkinsville.—Filed November 12, 1890. Appeal from Christian Court of Common Pleas. Opinion of the court by Presiding Judge Barbour, affirming.

First—While this court has no jurisdiction of an appeal where the validity of a statute is involved, it is not every suggestion that a statute is invalid that will deprive this court of jurisdiction. Where a question has been repeatedly and uniformly decided it should no longer be regarded as a question.

In view of the decision of the Court of Appeal, the power of the Legislature to confer upon cities and towns through their Councilmen and Trustees the authority to have streets and sidewalks improved at the expense of contiguous lot owners is not an open question.

Second—The power conferred upon a city to grade and improve streets is a continuing one and carries with it the power to regrade and re-pave after they have once been graded and paved.

Third—Where a lot owner with full notice from the city of an intended street improvement stands by and without objection permits the improvement to be made, he will not afterwards be heard to say that the improvement was unnecessary and that the Council in ordering it to be made acted arbitrarily and illegally.

Fourth—Even if the city had the absolute fee simple title to the improved street, that fact does not relieve the lot owner from liability for the cost of the improvement. But if the title of the city had been a material fact it should have been specifically set out in order to overcome the legal presumption that the lot owners own to the middle of the street.

The allegation that the city is the absolute owner of the improved street, and the defendants have no reversionary or remote interest therein, is a legal conclusion.

Landes & Clark for appellant.

Why to Select the Best.

Physicians claim that pure Sour Mash Whisky taken in moderation is beneficial to one's health. Kentucky is noted for its pure Sour Mash Whiskies and while there are quite a number of good brands on the market, the Old Silas Jones Whiskey, of which Laz Simon & Co., of Louisville, Ky., are the Sole Proprietors, is especially recommended for its medicinal qualities.

SEVEN GOOD MEN.

A Council Ticket That Cannot Be Defeated—Ball For Attorney.

The Democratic primaries were held Tuesday at all the voting places in the city and a winning ticket was nominated for the coming election. The total vote was 285, a good vote considering the fact that there were no contests for councilman in four of the wards. The nominees are all good and representative men and their selection gives general satisfaction and party harmony is assured. Of course some were disappointed, but no bad feeling was engendered in any of the contests and there will be no boiling or sulking when election day comes. Following is a list of the nominees:

First ward—J. M. Dennis.
Second ward—M. C. Forbes.
Third ward—R. T. Petree.
Fourth ward—F. W. Dabney.
Fifth ward—H. W. Tibbs.
Sixth ward—E. M. Flack.
Seventh ward—W. J. Withers.

THE OFFICIAL VOTES.

First ward—J. M. Dennis 19.
Second ward—M. C. Forbes 47, W. M. Hill 1.

Third ward—R. T. Petree 26, Geo. W. Shaw 24, F. J. Brownell 1.

Fourth ward—F. W. Dabney 31, F. Henderson 2.

Fifth ward—H. W. Tibbs 19, E. W. Walker 2.

Sixth ward—E. M. Flack 41, W. E. Ragsdale 11, Geo. W. Collins 10.

Seventh ward—W. J. Withers 28, Geo. H. Johnson 24.

FOR CITY ATTORNEY.

Gilmer M. Bell received in the First 16, Second 48, Third 47, Fourth 17, Fifth 21, Sixth 52, Seventh 31. Total 242. J. D. Hays received one vote in the Sixth ward.

SPLINTERS FROM THE BOARD.

In five of the wards the nomination is equivalent to an election and in one other the opposition is just formidable enough to make the boys stir themselves. The "Bloody Fifth" was intended to be Republican but its politics were changed this month and it gave Ellis a majority.

If any man is disposed to laugh at the idea of Tibbs being elected in the Fifth ward it would be well for him to restrain his mirth till after Dec. 13. There were in round numbers 280 voters in this ward last June. Of these many have gone away and fully 100 of them failed to vote even at the August election. Large squads of these men are working in other states and will not come back to vote when only one councilman is at stake. Of the others many of them owe back taxes and cannot vote. It would take several hundred dollars to clear up these taxes and make them qualified voters. This work was done last year on a large scale, but it will not be done this year. The Republicans can't afford it and the Democrats don't have to this time. Aside from these strong reasons, many colored men have quit the Republican party for good and will vote against any man they may put out. The Democratic vote in the Fifth is made up of hard fighters in politics and they are determined to have a man on the council who can have some influence and benefit his ward and this feeling will be shared by the thinking colored voters.

The contest in the Seventh was the most exciting of all. It was neck and neck all day and the interest spread to the Republicans, about 8 or 10 of whom went into the primary pig dog themselves to support the nominee. Their votes being divided about equally did not change the result. It took the official count to decide that Mr. Withers had won.

In the Third the result was a surprise. Mr. Shaw was well in the lead all day, but about 4 o'clock the Petree forces made a rally and gained steadily till the polls closed at 7 o'clock, when they were found to be two votes ahead.

The secret ballot worked like a charm and everybody was pleased with it.

A GHOST DANCE.

The Indian Craze Breaks Out in Hopkinsville.

It is not generally known that there are many people about Hopkinsville with Indian blood or other blood just as red in their veins. The report of the ghost dances among the Sioux has caused the same craze to break out here and a genuine ghost dance was held at the Opera House Tuesday night. To keep it from being broken up by Co. D, it was given for the pretended benefit of the Little Brothers of the Poor.

It proved to be an immense success. Charlie Thompson was the chief ghost and led the dancers. He was attired in a black shroud and a domino.

John Fye assisted Mr. Thompson very materially in his role of Mephistopheles. Mr. Fye wore a night shirt over his elegant broadcloth suit, to the rear of which was attached a very attractive bustle.

Colonel Day danced very gracefully and was the center of attraction of the entire audience, frequently being interrupted by storms of applause.

When Gus Young and Tom Haggerty appeared on the stage to dance a double eug "Ghost Dance" the vast audience fairly went wild with excitement and both the talented performers had to respond to numerous encores.

Messrs. E. W. Henderson, Geo. H. Johnson, Alex. Overholser and D. J. Hooser sang a beautiful quartet entitled "The Fairy Ball," then Duo Merritt, J. O. Cooper, Robt. Guynn, Jno. Green and Will Cooper danced the Spanish Bolero to the great delight and entertainment of the audience.

John Young, J. G. Hord, G. V. Campbell, L. H. McKee and A. G. Bush sang the "Sweet Bye and Bye," after which the entire lot of performers appeared on the stage and indulged in what is known as the "Frenzied Dance." Mr. Hooser taking the lead in this instance.

Just at this juncture Dick Holland put in an appearance attired in a beautiful white shroud with point lace trimmings. The audience fairly boiled over with enthusiasm; such a graceful and beautiful creature had never before been seen on any stage in Hopkinsville and Mr. Holland's appearance therefore on his own stage created quite a sensation. Mr. Holland's waltzers have sprouted out beautifully of late and the ladies are all in raptures over them.

Mr. Holland has declined at least four proposals of marriage to date, many eligible and estimable ladies, from the fact that he is very busy in conducting his big Opera House and running the policies of the Second ward. He says he has two or three of the proposals now under consideration and may take some definite action upon them during the coming winter if he can possibly find time to do so.

Red fire was burned and the great "Hopkinsville Ghost Dance" was brought to a climax with thunders of applause, not receipts over $200. It is said that it will be repeated on Christmas day for the benefit of the L. & N. railroad.

JOSEPH McBRATTAN.

DREAM OF NEWS.

Archie Baker Shot.
Geo. Coker accidentally shot and badly wounded Archie Baker yesterday while they were hunting in the country. A colored man brought in the news yesterday afternoon and said the loud knock effect in his bowels, tearing a hole from which the entrails protruded. He was taken to a cabin near by. No later reports. Both live in town.

Thanksgiving Services.
Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Most of the local pastors who were in the city took part in the program. Services were also held at the Episcopal church at the same hour. The banks and all public offices were closed, but none of the merchants closed their business houses.

A Serious Cutting Affray.
Last Saturday Virgil and Andrew Hancock, brothers, engaged in a fight on the road near Lafayette, which resulted in the serious cutting of the latter. Jno. Hancock, their father, also engaged in the fight, but was not hurt. Andrew received six cuts about the neck and may not recover. Virgil was struck with a rock and badly bruised up. No arrests have yet been made.

The Hunters' Return.
The Christian County Hunting Club returned Sunday from Old Napoleon, Ark., where they went Nov. 5, on their annual deer hunt. They had great luck, killing fourteen deer, one bear and any amount of game and fish. The members of the party were Capt. Sam R. White, J. R. Caudle, W. W. West and Hamilton Hyde, Julian, W. A. Lowry, Hopkinsville; Pete Barker, Barker's Mill; Sam Stegner, Trenton; P. D. Poulton and W. D. Garrett, Pembroke; Austin Feay, Clarksville; and T. P. Burke, New York.

Burglars Again at Work.
Ben Rosenbaum's dry goods store was burglarized Tuesday night some time before 10 o'clock. The thief must have been accompanied by a small boy from the way the house was entered. An ordinary transom over the back door was broken out. This had an iron bar across the middle and through this space a boy was probably shoved, who opened the door from the inside. About 10 o'clock the door was found open and as near as can be estimated about $10 or $12 worth of clothing and shoes had been taken. Other goods were scattered on the floor and in the back yard.

Dr. Thomas Gets a Place.
The Sinking Fund Commissioners met at Frankfort Monday night, and in a session lasting until after 10 o'clock, effected an organization and drew up the necessary orders looking to the control and use of the branch penitentiary at Edyville. The officers elected to take charge of the institution are: Gen. H. B. Lyon, of Edyville, Warden; Dr. Ormsby Gray, of Louisville, Clerk; and Dr. J. Q. Thomas, of Hopkinsville, Physician. The salary of the Warden is $2,000 per annum and term of office four years, unless sooner removed by the board for good and sufficient reasons. The other officers, whose salaries are $1,200 each, are subject to the pleasure of the board.

Children Enjoy.
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

MATRIMONIAL.

A marriage license was issued Mr. Eugene Coleman Wednesday, to wed Miss Cora Pankey. Both parties live in the Church Hill neighborhood. The Russellville Herald says a wedding between a young couple occupying "the top round of the social circles of Todd county" has been declared off because the groom-elect caught his girl in the net of kissing another fellow, a few days before the wedding was to take place. Names are withheld, but the girl is described as a beautiful 19-year-old brunette, whose father has "thousand acres, fine herds and a fat bank account," while the youth is a "sturdy young farmer living on an adjoining farm." Who are they?

Pledge Taken.—Mr. Fisher Page, of Todd county, and Miss Lula Tuck, of Lafayette, will be married at the Christian church at the latter place, next Wednesday. Elder Mobley will officiate.

Mr. C. D. Settle, of Kennedy, in this county, was married Thursday to Miss Marina Farmer, of Clarksville. The wedding took place in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Rev. J. W. Sullivan officiating.

Tuesday morning at the North-ton House by the Rev. Mr. Early, W. S. Morris, of Pembroke, Ky., and Miss Bettie Whit, of Lincoln county, Ky., were united in marriage. The groom was about 60 years old and the bride 17.—Clarksville Progress.

Thanksgiving services were held yesterday at the colored Baptist church, on Virginia street.

It took eighty turkeys to feed the patients at the Asylum yesterday at the Thanksgiving dinner.

The first freeze of the season changed the monotony of Indian Summer yesterday morning.

The long expected "hog killing spell" came this week and the farmers are availing themselves of it.

For Sale or Rent.—A house and lot on corner 3rd and Virginia Sts. Apply to B. F. SIMMONS.

The public schools adjourned Wednesday evening until Monday morning, on account of Thanksgiving day.

Moseley & Tribble are still paying highest market prices for all good, fat hogs. Office, Wyly & Burnett's drug store.

Rev. A. W. Meneham has been conducting a protracted meeting at Little River church for the last two weeks.

The young ladies of the Christian church will hold a reception at the residence of Mrs. Nannie Moore this evening. The public is invited. Admission 10 cents.

Large numbers of turkeys were brought in from the country this week and sold at prices ranging from 50c to $1.00, according to size and condition.

Cliff A. Clark has opened a stock of groceries and general merchandise at Bellevue. He will occupy the Clark store house, the former stand of Clark & McGeehe.

The first reception of the young ladies' Matinee Club will be held at Mrs. E. V. Gant's next Tuesday evening and promises to be a very toney affair. More than one hundred invitations have been issued.

Al Field's minstrels more than met the expectations of the public. His show is decidedly the best of its kind that has ever been here and contains more and better original features than any minstrel company on the road.

Rev. Chas. H. Nash, who is still at Bowling Green, will return again Sunday to hold his regular morning and evening services at the Baptist church. The meeting in which he is engaged at Bowling Green is proving a very successful one.

The Belleview property of McGeehe Bros., consisting of 28 acres of land, dwelling house of six rooms, blacksmith's shop, stable, two cabins, ice house and other buildings, is offered for sale. It is a splendid location for a doctor. Eight miles from Hopkinsville. Call on or address McGeehe Bros., Clarksville, Gracely or Pembroke.

The manager of the Poorless Minstrels has received a proposition to play the towns of Cloverport and Unionsville, Ky., and Cannelton, Ind., on a guarantee during Christmas week, to show six nights in all. It is not likely that the proposition will be seriously considered, as the boys will all be too busy during the Holidays to quit their business.

Mine Host Cooper, of the Phoenix Hotel, spread one of his "big dinners" yesterday and not only feasted his regular guests but a large number of invited friends. It goes without the saying that the dinner was a good one. In fact Mr. Cooper serves 365 good dinners every year and when he adds a few extra touches his meals become banquets of the most sumptuous character.

Mr. George Wills, of the firm of Davis & Wills, of Beverly, and Mr. M. A. Mason, of Newstead, have bought the McGeehe Bros' store property and stock of general merchandise in the latter place. Messrs. Proutins and Clarence Saltee, who have been clerking for McGeehe Bros., will remain with the new firm, which will be known as Mason & Wills. The business will be conducted by the junior partner, and his eight years' experience in merchandising and Mr. Mason's popularity will, no doubt, cause the new firm to receive a lucrative trade. Possession will be given Dec. 1st.

A breach of promise suit was filed this week by Miss India Hays against E. W. Merritt, asking $10,000 damages. Plaintiff in her petition claims that she was seduced by defendant, under promise of marriage, in February last, and that as a result a child was born into her on the 9th of this month, and further that Merritt failed to comply with his promise to marry her at the appointed time and has refused since to do so. Sensational developments will likely be made in the suit over come to trial, it is understood. Judge Joe McCarroll and Col. A. H. Clark have been retained as counsel to prosecute the suit.

DEATHS.

COLORED.

Leola Campbell died in the city Tuesday afternoon, aged about 60 years.

Died at the residence of her son-in-law, Richard Smith, on the Clarksville pike, Nov. 19th, Aunt Hannah Williams, aged 87 years and 8 months. She was formerly owned by the late Mrs. Mary P. Moore. A devoted and faithful servant, she was held in high esteem by all her friends, both white and colored.

It is dangerous to neglect catarh, for it leads to bronchitis and consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarh in all forms.

Three damage suits aggregating $50,000, have been filed with the Circuit Clerk, against Mr. J. S. Summers a prominent farmer of the Longview neighborhood. The first is brought by Susan West, the second by W. A. West, and the third is brought by W. A. West. The allegations in all the petitions are the same, and charge that on the night of Oct. 16th last, Mr. Summers assaulted and fired upon the plaintiffs with intent to kill and in each petition $10,000 is asked as damages. The plaintiffs live immediately on the road near Longview. Mr. Summers denies the allegations set forth in toto, and the general impression is that there is nothing in the case.

A GOOD THING!
